

Title: Web/Graphic Designer

Location: Cambridge, MA / New York, NY

Compensation: Competitive. Eligible for pre-IPO stock option grants.

Job Description:

Next Jump is looking for a Web/Graphic Designer who has a passion for consumer-oriented website design. In addition to a strong sense of visual design, you must have a passion for user-centered web experiences. You will be responsible for working with business and product leads to understand needs and opportunities. With internal needs in hand, you will lead design through initial concepts and inspirational visuals through the design and build process for all Next Jump web sites.

Responsibilities:

- Work closely with designers, product managers, and business associates to create wireframes and design mockups for proper design implementation
- Innovate, refine and implement product design by means of visual and functional solutions that respond to user needs
- Manage workflow and deadlines of multiple, simultaneous projects
- Identify and implement requirements, develop and maintain UI specifications and guidelines while resolving tradeoffs and implementation issues
- Develop and code HTML pages as needed

Requirements:

- Only portfolios with web/interface design will be considered
- Minimum of 3 years experience designing web-based user interfaces
- Solid understanding of user-centered design processes, usability principles and information architecture
- Ability to prioritize, multi-task, and manage work to critical project deadlines in a fast-paced, dynamic environment
- Knowledge of and ability to hand-code HTML, DHTML, and CSS
- Bachelor's degree in Graphic Design, Digital Media Design or other related visual arts
- Proficiency in established software tools: Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, PowerPoint, Visio, Word, Excel, etc.
- Experience interacting with management, communicating and presenting design initiatives and priorities in professional and corporate settings
- Strong analytical, written and verbal communication skills
- Outstanding organization skills and a keen attention to details

Company Summary:

With one of the largest Internet engineering teams on the east coast, Next Jump has quietly created a world class, next generation shopping platform adopted by MasterCard and most Fortune 1000 companies. The recently launched OO.com, with valuable, proprietary WOWPoints™ for every transaction, is the company's first consumer shopping site. Next Jump's eco-system of blue-chip brands and high-value shoppers have made it the loyalty and rewards program of choice for Dell, Hilton Hotels, and numerous others, as well as similar programs for membership organizations like AARP. Next Jump was founded by Charlie Kim, CEO and is based in New York City.
